The Bracebridge School of Ballet reserves the right to cancel a class due to lack of enrollment or attendance. 4 Students are required to constitute a class. Scheduling is subject to change, only when it is necessary and with every individual's needs in mind. In order to maintain our active schedule and ensure classes start on time it is often not possible to have lengthy discussions with parents between classes. We welcome your telephone and e-mail messages and try our best to respond within one business day. Please feel free to schedule an appointment to discuss questions or concerns. Thanks so much for your understanding.
